Pennywise Peter.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, the brilliant alienist, said at a recent dinner in New York:

"Then there is the cunning lunatic, of whom there used to exist a good example at Bridgetown."

"There was a half-witted youth in Bridgetown to whom the neighboring farmers liked to offer a penny and a nickel."

"Gathered about him in a circle on market day, the farmers, one after another, would say:

"Now, when'll ye have, Peter?
Here's a cent—here's a nickel—take yer choice."

"And foolish Peter invariably would choose the cent rather than the nickel, and the farmers before such incredible foolishness would roar with laughter, double in two, and slap their legs noisily with their brown hands."

"Peter, I said one day to the lunatic, 'why is it that you always take the cent instead of the nickel?'"

"Peter grinned a very cunning grin.
'Suppose I took the nickel,' said he,
'would I ever get a chance to take another one?'"—Washington Post.

Keeping Up Appearances.

"Mrs. Finletter and her husband had just moved into a $15 seven-room house. The first Sunday morning there, as Mr. Finletter sat on his little porch and all the neighbors on both sides of the street sat on their little porches, Mrs. Finletter suddenly came to the front door and shouted at her husband in a loud, vexed voice:

"Hilary Finletter, will you or will you not come in to luncheon? The champagne is nearly flat, and you know how soon a dish of terrapin gets cold!"

Finletter tossed down the comic section and hurried indoors with a dazed smile.

"What are you kidding me for?" he asked, as he looked at the rump steak and potatoes on the dining table.

"It's not you, Hilary, I'm kidding," said his wife. "It's the neighbors."

Parisian Politeness.

"That the French are the politest people on earth," says a New Yorker, who spends a bit of his time in Paris.
"I have always been convinced, and a recent incident in a Parisian dentist's office accorded me additional confirmation of that belief."

"I entered the dentist's anteroom just as a patient—an exceedingly wee-begone expression on his countenance —was approached by an attendant."

"Whom, m'sieu," inquired the attendant, with the most sympathetic of inflections, in his voice—"whom shall I have the misery of announcing to M. le Docteur?"—Lippincott's.

Opinion Reserved.

"The Woman's Suffrage Study club" has recently been organized in New York. One of its objects is to "induce men to go to church on Sundays instead of staying in bed." We do not feel inclined to say that it is "starting out under favorable auspices."

Too Fast for Him.

At the University of Missouri is the first working school of journalism in the world. As practical laboratory work, a daily paper with telegraph reports is issued. Walter Williams, its dean, tells of the vicissitudes he encounters in turning laymen into journalists. A student was sent in haste to cover a railroad wreck at a town a few miles away.

It was almost time for the daily to go to press, and still no word had been received from the young man on the assignment. In desperation Dean Williams telegraphed, asking why the story was not forthcoming. The reply was:

"Too much excitement. Wait till things quiet down."—Lippincott's.

A Phrenologist.

"Pa, what do they call a person that reads heads?"

"A phrenologist, my boy."

"Gee! Then ma must be one of those things. She felt my head this afternoon and said right away:
'You've been swimming.'"—Detroit Free Press.

"The Blood is The Life"

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are effected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood.

Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.
